Lunch Menu

*C*afé Paradiso opened its doors June 1st 2007 to become the first Italian Restaurant in Urbana Ohio. Owners Pat and Patsy Thackery wanted to help the revitalization of the Downtown Historic District by providing an additional choice in dining for Urbana and Western Central Ohio. The building was purchased in December of 2006 and previously housed a breakfast and lunch landmark “Paradise Cafe”. In the 1930’s “Paradise Lunch” was a family owned diner where many businessmen met with their associates over lunch. Through the years the restaurant changed hands several times but most owners kept the name “Paradise” linking its tradition in the community. By providing quality service and value to our customers we will continue to be successful through another generation.
